

MPD's future home at 225 Virginia Avenue, SE, in Near Southeast.

To learn more about the planned move to 225 Virginia Avenue and other changes taking place at the MPD, please visit our newsroom at www.mpd.dc.gov.

For more on the Near Southeast neighborhood, its history, and future development, please visit www.jdland.com/dc.

Announcing a Community Meeting to Discuss MPD's Planned Move to Near Southeast

PHOTO COURTESY JACQUELINE DUPREEE / JD.LAND.COM

WHEN

Wednesday, July 18 / 6:30 PM

WHERE

St. Mark's Episcopal Church (Nave)
3rd and A Streets, SE
(behind the Library of Congress)

BACKGROUND

The Metropolitan Police Department and the Office of Property Management are planning the move of MPD's Headquarters, First District, Narcotics and Special Investigations Division, and Special Operations Division to 225 Virginia Avenue, SE (the former Washington Post and Washington Star plant) in 2009-2010. Come to the Town Hall meeting to learn about the schedule, building renovations, parking, and other information.

SPECIAL GUEST

Join Ward 6 Councilmember Tommy Wells to discuss other public safety concerns and topics.